

FRUITFLOWERS, FOR ALL OF LIFE'S OCCASIONS!

Owners: Susan Talluto
& Lorie Marrella

It's a hectic month, but for most of us it is the most wonderful time of the year. The month of December is sprinkled with good cheer and plentiful parties. There is a spirit of humanity that comes back to life every holiday season.

If you are planning on hosting a holiday party for personal or business reasons, you'll give careful attention to centerpieces and food, I'm sure. Have you considered the fact that the food can actually serve as the centerpiece? Well, it can when it is a bouquet of FruitFlowers™.

This local company makes delicious, not to mention beautiful arrangements... and they are edible! The sumptuous fruit bouquets arranged to look like flowers can include freshly cut pineapple, strawberries, cantaloupe, honeydew, kiwi, and grapes. All of the fruit is preservative free, ripe, sweet and juicy!

FruitFlowers are wonderful for holiday parties. They certainly give your guests something to talk about and something to nibble on. You can always chocolatize any of the fruit bouquets to add the final touch.

The added beauty of these edible floral creations is that it cuts your party preparation time in half. And we could all use a little more time in the month of December. So this holiday season, consider the fantastic food from FruitFlowers. They also make for great hostess gifts if you've been invited to a party.

It can be very stressful finding something unique that you feel confident will be used and loved by the recipient. FruitFlowers is here to help! If you have not seen a bouquet in person yet, go to fruitflowers.com and check them out. They are wonderful! The highest quality fruits and vegetables are used to create these unique arrangements, so they are incredibly tasty all year round.

"Many of our sales come from businesses thanking other businesses. Both men and women love to receive the sweet, juicy flowers, and the novelty of the gift really impresses the recipient, along with how delicious they taste", says Lorie Marrella, Owner of two FruitFlowers locations, FruitFlowers of Delaware and FruitFlowers of Chester County, PA.

So, whether it is for personal or professional gift giving or entertaining, FruitFlowers is here to make your holiday less stressful and more manageable!

December is jam packed for holiday entertaining. It is filled with joy and laughter. It is the closing of one year and introduction to another year. It is winter, and, we all know how difficult our lives can be during the snowy season. Winter can pack a punch and take a toll on human frailty. It can be a time of sadness and loss. Death and funerals are a difficult, yet an unavoidable part of life. Acknowledging your friends or relatives who are experiencing a loss is important. It is a meaningful moment in their life when you have food or flowers delivered to express your sympathy and concern during this time.

Unique for such occasions, and unbelievably appropriate, is a lovely arrangement of FruitFlowers. The bouquets are in very good taste for families in mourning. The family is every bit as appreciative of the fruit bouquet as they would be in receiving the standard funeral flowers, but they get a taste tempting and unique treat as well.

Another advantage to sending FruitFlowers is that it serves as a conversation piece. There can be awkward moments of silence and this day-brightening fruit bouquet can give them a moment of lightness at a very dark time.

"Receiving a bouquet of beautiful, FruitFlowers was a bright spot during a very sad time for me", says a customer of FruitFlowers of Delaware. "I had just lost my mother and it was a wonderful pick-me-up. Besides, I had dozens of regular flowers already delivered to me that filled our house. Another bouquet of regular flowers would have been a waste."

Funerals are difficult, but you can lift someone's spirits with this mouthwatering creation. Of course what's most important is letting the person know that you care about their loss, regardless of what you send them.

FruitFlowers is a great gift for happy and joyous times in our lives as well as for sad and difficult times. FruitFlowers is great for any occasion, or no occasion at all!
